The Brady Brief - America Competes

Dear Friend,

Over the past few months, Congress has taken numerous steps to spur job growth and improve our economy. Due to these measures, our country has already seen significant gains in reversing unemployment. I have proudly supported each of these measures, and I look forward to continue to create jobs.

Signed into law and working for Americans

- American Recovery and Reinvestment Act

- Created up to 2.8 million jobs already, including jobs for teachers, police and firefighters
- Rebuilds America with clean energy and 21st century jobs

- Worker, Homeownership and Business Assistance Act

- Boosts the economy with emergency relief for Americans hit by the recession
- Enhanced small business tax relief for U.S. businesses with use of net operating loss provision

- Health Insurance Reform

- Creates 4 million new jobs over the decade, primarily in small businesses

- Student Aid and Fiscal Responsibility Act

- Is the largest investment in college aid in history to make education more affordable –increasing Pell Grants, strengthening community colleges and minority-serving institutions, expending training

- Cash for Clunkers

- Spurred the sale of 700,000 vehicles
- Enabled America's automakers to pay back the taxpayers and create jobs again

- Hiring Incentives to Restore Employment (HIRE) Act

- Created 300,000 jobs
- Cut taxes for businesses to hire, accelerated write-offs for small businesses

Measures passed by the House

- Wall Street Reform

- Reverses the lack of accountability for Wall Street and big banks - which cost 8 million American jobs
- Enacts new rules that will spur lending to help create American jobs and protect household wealth
